

Keeping warm in later life project

Keeping Warm In Later Life project Consultation Event Monday 19th September 2011

Carlton Park Hotel, Moorgate Road, Rotherham, S60 2BG - Tel 01709 849955

Time	Session	Speaker / Lead	Room
9:00 - 9:30	Arrival and registrations		Reception
9:30 - 9:40	Format / aim of the day	Professor Chris Bentley, Chair of the day and Honorary Professor at Sheffield Hallam University	Carlton Park Suite
9:40 - 9:50	Welcome to the day	Rt Hon John Healey MP, Shadow Secretary of State for Health and MP for Wentworth and Dearne	Carlton Park Suite
9:50 - 10:00	Rotherham perspective	Councillor Ken Wyatt, Cabinet Member Health &amp; Well Being, Rotherham Metropolitan Borough Council	Carlton Park Suite
10:00 - 10:20	Health Impact of Fuel Poverty	Dr Janet Rudge, Energy Officer, London Borough of Ealing	Carlton Park Suite
10:20 - 11:00	Background to the KWILLT Overview of Research Findings	Dr Angela Tod, Reader in Health and Social Care Research, Sheffield Hallam University Catherine Homer, Health Promotion Specialist, NHS Rotherham	Carlton Park Suite
11:00 - 11:25	Drama presentation of KWILLT findings	Students from Stage and Screen, Faculty of Development and Society, Sheffield Hallam University , Led by Maureen Barry, Principle Lecturer	Carlton Park Suite
11:25 - 11:45	Refreshments		Atrium Suite
11:45 - 11:55	Why are older people cold?	Kath McDaid, Project Development Co-ordinator, National Energy Action	Carlton Park Suite
11:55 - 12:45	Interactive Discussion	Facilitator Led	Carlton Park Suite
12:45 - 13:30	Lunch		Atrium Suite
13:30 - 13:40	What can we do about it?	Jo Cooke, Programme Manager, South Yorkshire Collaboration for Leadership in Applied Health Care	Carlton Park Suite
13:40 - 14:30	Interactive Discussion	Facilitator Led	Carlton Park Suite
14:30 - 14:45	Refreshments		Atrium Suite
14:45 - 15:40	Best Practice carousel style 3 sessions 15 minutes each The Dorset Landlords Project Health Through Warmth South Yorkshire Hot Spots  Energy Champions Project Getting the message across in communities Fuel debt advice Making Every Contact Counts Older Warmer Wise A strategic approach to financial inclusion	Phil Neale, Dorset Energy Advice Centre Jane Mears, East Riding Of Yorkshire Council Catherine Homer, NHS Rotherham Steve Makepeace, South Yorkshire Fire &amp; Rescue Myrte Elbers, NHS Leeds Sue Mann, Age UK Lorraine Donaldson, National Energy Action Kath McDaid, National Energy Action Shelley Davies, South Yorkshire Energy Centre Jane Woodford, Voluntary Action Rotherham	Carlton Park Suite Carlton Park Suite Carlton Park Suite Carlton Park Suite Atrium Suite Atrium Suite President Suite Carlton Park Suite Atrium Suite Moorgate Suite
15:40 - 16:00	What next for Keeping Warm in Later Life	Angela Mawle, National expert on fuel poverty and ex-chief executive of UKHPA	Carlton Park Suite
16:00 - 16:15	Plenary and Close	Professor Chris Bentley - Chair of the day and Honorary Chair at Sheffield Hallam University	Carlton Park Suite

You will be allocated a table to sit at when you register. You will have the opportunity at registration to select 3 best practice sessions to attend in the afternoon. Speaker's presentations will be available to download from www.kwiltt.org after the consultation event. Car parking is available at the hotel. The hotel is 5 minutes walk from Rotherham Hospital and is well served with public transport links.