

Keeping warm in later life project

KWILLT Conference

Carlton Park Hotel, Moorgate Road, Rotherham, S60 2BG

Monday 19th September 2011, 9am - 4pm

Over the last two years we have been conducting some research in Rotherham exploring the experiences of how older people keep warm and what can be done to help them.

The conference will provide an opportunity to:

- Hear about and discuss our findings.
- Exchange and debate good practice ideas and experience.
- Generate solutions for policy and practice.
- Develop a network of interested individuals and organisations.

With speakers including:

- Professor Chris Bentley Honorary Chair at Sheffield Hallam University.
- Rt Hon John Healey MP, Shadow Secretary of State for Health and MP for Wentworth and Dearne.
- Members of the KWILLT Team.
- Dr Janet Rudge, Energy Officer, London Borough of Ealing
- Angela Mawle, National expert on fuel poverty and ex-Chief Executive of UKHPA.

Places at the conference are free, book online at:
<http://www.rotherham.nhs.uk/KWILLTevent> or call 01709 302093.

Who should attend?

Anyone involved in keeping older people warm

- Policy makers, housing officers, health and social care staff, mental health professionals, staff developing pathways for long term conditions and commissioners, researchers, the voluntary sector.
- Community groups and charities representing older people.
- People working in any of the following areas: energy and affordable warmth, financial inclusion, heating technology and design.

Places at the conference are free, book online at:
<http://www.rotherham.nhs.uk/KWILLTevent> or call 01709 302093.

www.rotherham.nhs.uk

NHS Rotherham is the Rotherham Primary Care Trust

© Creative Media Services NHS Rotherham

Date of publication: 14.06.2011 Ref: HIEG3024_1112NH5R

The research is funded by the National Institute for Research, Research for Patient Benefit program.